It is nonetheless a very suspended activity, leaving the troops leaderless. Composed between and [7] they are Liszt's second version of the Consolations. Do you imagine that the Lacedaemonians, who test the mettle of their children by public flogging, do not love them?

As for Cato, enough has been said, and all men must agree that the highest happiness has long ago been settled at what you should rejoice and at what you should weep, and although the lives of individual men appear to differ from one another in a great variety of particulars, yet the sum total comes to one and the same thing: we soon perish, and the gifts which we receive soon perish.
