Memories of the close bond he had once shared with other five cats came flooding. He let out a snort of discomfort and sent an irritated glance at Kestrelflight. Leafpool, where are you? Thankyou. He felt as if he were back at the Windclan camp. He braced himself, but right before he hit the ground and broke his neck, an invisible force caught. Barkface gave Crowfeather a swift lick on the shoulder before returning to the row of cats.
