Or at least make sure your proofreaders. Baker Island. The elements are there; but the exciting writing is missing in action. Perhaps some of those observations were still partly accurate. To ask other readers questions about Slingshot please sign up. The plot is exciting and the story is believable and understandable. The mystery was interesting, less so in the fact that you almost always know who is behind the crimes, although there are a few characters where you are left guessing as to their involvement and to what degree.
