There are four other themes in the exposition. The piano continues the neighbor-note figures until the viola settles. Contrasting passage. It's also beautifully recorded by Hyperion. See media help. The opening material is repeated and a coda in C major repeats part of the trio section. His purpose was musical expression, and while his compositions can be highly complex there must be an understanding or enjoyment of his works on a 'gut' or emotional level to remain popular. Brahms-Piano Quartet No. Intermezzo: Allegro ma non troppo. The strings continue their sweeping triplets. The opening piano octaves on the winding pattern are heard as at the beginning.
