Dual containment committed the United States to opposing two countries that were bitter rivals, and it forced Washington to keep large ground and air forces in Saudi Arabia and the Gulf. Socialism and its Defining Elements.

The Neo-Realist Perspective: U. The legitimacy of that point of view, as expressed in the current international system, is far from impossible in such a world – indeed, at times cooperating with others is essential to survival – but it is always somewhat fragile. Despite herculean efforts by a number of European leaders and EU officials, these centrifugal tendencies seem to be getting worse, as the Brexit decision, the recent elections in Italy, and the resurgent nationalism in Poland and Hungary all attest.
