On the one hand, I felt so scared, but on the other, I can't describe how positive I felt. Pam and Roy, however, did start to build a close bond, although it was always Pam who worked hardest at the relationship. His daughter, Georgia, will soon begin college at the University of Dayton, where she plans to study operations management.

Thus, I feel like I always lack of affection and human touch. Generally speaking, We all pave our own roads in life and ultimately our fates are in our own hands. When I saw him I saw him beating the woman I carried close to my heart my mother.

I agree that he had a harder life but I usually tell him that he doesn't have to be as I grow older, I realized that as a daughter and growing up without a father figure does affected my emotional health and personality.
