Would you like us to take another look at this review? In keeping with the series, this book continues the saga with beautiful horses and the mysterious Atlantis. No person in this book is just good or bad, but they all seem to have a story that made them who they are, even though the reader doesn't get to know most of them - there is no black and white and a lot of space for some surprising turns.

In the midst of her search to reclaim him, Stasia is summoned to the island nation yet! I ran right into her as she stopped mid-stride and twisted around to face me with off-putting enthusiasm.
