All other holy beings are holy in relative degrees. Moreover, just as the old nature cannot produce a righteous life, so also the new nature cannot in itself produce one. The Son of God was a holy Son.

This indicative-mood statement forms the basis for the radical imperatives. And verse 4 goes on to tell us that we must exercise the same kind of control over the words we say: Nor should there be obscenity, foolish talk or coarse joking, which are out of place, but rather thanksgiving. Explicit directions are given to those who have specific gifts. For example, however, quality time is needed on a regular basis to achieve the required result.

When God is through with us, He will glorify us. Against this background, it becomes clear that it is a doctrine about which thinkers in other disciplines besides theology have something to say. Christ has conquered sin and only through union with Him through the Holy Spirit is His accomplished victory available to believers.
