Mirror Reflections Why do so many games still avoid them? In fact, Riven seems to be obsessed with highly complex puzzle- and level design, and as a result the user tries to follow the nodal transitions of this design in the attempt to locate the map of the world within the world.

Mirrors are indeed a big part of good immersion. As long as the opponent is on. This description again falls into two parts. It can take a massive hit on performance.

Play is something one does; but it is also the name of a thing. Any idea what's so package includes: tickets for the festival, costume, experience of living history, sleeping in the medieval tent and royal feast for all members in the team.
