Science-Fiction: The Early Years. October The narrator then sees one of the weaker members of the grotesque mob get attacked and eaten by one of its compatriots. September After that I recall running, spade in hand; a hideous run across moon-litten, mound-marked meadows and through diseased, precipitous abysses of haunted hillside forest; leaping, screaming, panting, bounding toward the terrible Martense mansion. We had started quietly from the village because of The Lurking Fear reporters who still lingered about after the eldritch panic of a month before—the nightmare creeping death. Sometimes, in the throes of a nightmare when unseen powers whirl one over the roofs of strange dead cities toward the grinning chasm of Nis, it is a relief The Lurking Fear even a delight to shriek wildly and throw oneself voluntarily along with the hideous vortex of dream-doom into whatever bottomless gulf may yawn.

The shadow I had seen, I hardly dared to analyse or identify. Internet Resources only wish there had been a thunderstorm going on! Wikisource has original text related to this article: The Lurking Fear.
