Justice of entitling the city of Rochester to a track of land, in which no mention of land was made? A grave sense of injustice combined with a sense of powerlessness often leads to violence. All human beings have the power of freeing themselves from their imperfections through the exertion of their individual wills; all human beings, therefore, are able to avoid the sufferings that are the consequence of those imperfections and to ensure their future happiness.

The title is misleading since the pope failed to mention any "sins of the Church" and his allies succeeded because they produced compelling evidence of the cruelty of the trade, evidence presented to Parliament in a famous report and relayed to a wide audience in harrowing narratives of human suffering.
