Chilling Dreadful stories of the lives of the children used in the Commanders experiment unfold and the insanity continues as a result of it through the lives of his victims. It's a twisted game, one she's certain to lose without the help of FBI Special Agent Nick Blackwood, the man she's loved since high school - and whose tormented past holds the key to catching a killer.

This is one of only a few books I've read that has excellent grammar and is written by Remmy Rothstein Toes the Line. But, this series is different and I love how it is written.

Nick and Brenda have a history together, one that refuses to stay in the past. Y loved it. I mostly enjoyed this book.
